

Denbury Resources Inc.

Lease Records Supervisor

Denbury Resources Inc. (NYSE: DNR) is a growing independent oil and natural gas company currently looking for an experienced Lease Records Supervisor to work in our Plano, Texas corporate office.

Responsibilities include supervision and coordination of analysts and monitoring of work flow including prospect and project assignments, attendance management, reporting and file rooms. Work with Land teams, acquisition teams, audit, training and payment processes. System knowledge required but has separate reporting structure.

Requirements:

Prior recent supervisory experience a must. This position will be responsible for managing a large group. Bachelors or Associates degree preferred but not required.

The ability to handle multiple tasks and make sound decisions is essential.

The knowledge with dealing in personnel matters and work flows is a great asset.

A Bachelor's or Associates degree is preferred but not required.

Interested applicants can apply by visiting the Careers section of www.denbury.com. You will be able to complete an application and submit your resume. We will review each and every resume that arrives. We appreciate your interest in Denbury Resources!

DRI is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is a Drug Free Environment.